HUMAN OFFICE SPACE

An office should be a place of focus and efficiency. The NF7 700GROUP leads a new trend in office furniture through its human-oriented design which maximizes work efficiency and helps individual workers to fully utilize their skills.

GOOD DESIGN

MAIN SYSTEM

The NF7 700GROUP has a futuristic design that avoids the complex and closed-in nature of a traditional workstation environment and instead provides a streamlined layout with generous storage volumes.

The NF7 700GROUP consists of several components that come in various colors to suit any office environment. Their practical design allows for maximum space utilization.

There are 2 castors attached to the legs of the table which makes it easy to move. Move the table around to fit your needs.

BENCH SYSTEM

The NF7 700GROUP is a next generation office furniture system designed to bring out the best performance from users based on studies of worker habits.

We broke from convention and created a workstation with a geometric arrangement. A simple screen panel divides the individual work spaces.

CONFERENCE SYSTEM

The conference table of the NF7 700GROUP comes in a selection of bright and appealing colors to create a pleasant communication environment in any meeting room.

The conference table consists of units.
You can utilize it according to your needs.

The NF7 speaks for itself in any meeting room.
Adaptable and functional - it offers clean and simple organization of cables.
